

Co-hosted Programs

January 16, 2007	Consortium of Richmond's Religious History presents Rarities of Religious Freedom: Documents from the Library of Virginia	At the Library of Virginia, Richmond, VA
February 12, 2007	Framing the Debate: "The United States and the Promotion of Religious Freedom Abroad." International Religious Freedom Act; Role of the State Dept.: Where do religious rights come from? Comparing religious freedom in the U.S. with other countries.	At Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University, New York, NY
February 13, 2007	Framing the Debate: "The Religion Clauses and the Founders' Intent." Focus on 18th century meaning and whether that should apply today. Did founders intend "separation of church and state?" What is the role of federalism?	At Columbia Law School, New York, NY
March 20, 2007	Framing the Debate: Religion and the States Under the American Constitutional System	St. Louis University, St. Louis, MO
March 21, 2007	Framing the Debate: Religious Freedom and the Intent of the Framers - What was it?	At Emory University, Atlanta, GA.
April 5, 2007	Framing the Debate: Religion and the Public Schools	At Pepperdine University, Malibu, CA.
Spring 2007	Consortium 2007	With local educational and religious organizations

Speaking and Teaching Engagements

February 26-28, 2007	IRLA Cape Town	By Ambassador Robert Seiple
March 16, 2007	Daughters of the American Revolution	Presentation by Isabelle Kinnard at chapter meeting
April 12, 2007	Rule of Law Conference	With Ambassador Robert Seiple at the University of Richmond
July 12-14, 2007	Interfaith Collaboration Panel	Isabelle Kinnard, representatives of the Interfaith Conference of Metropolitan Washington, the North America Interfaith Network, and the Interfaith Council of Greater Richmond.